A Washington special says: "Democrats boast that they will carry Oregon in June before the Republicans recover from the effects of the veto." Burglary.

One of the most audacious burglaries, which can be conceived of, was committed last Thursday night at the premises of L. B. Royal, who has lately opened a jewelry store on Squemoqua street, next to the Walla Walla restaurant. Some time ago Mr. Royal missed a pair of bracelets that had been left at his place for repairs, and on Thursday evening, about nine o'clock, in company with an assistant, he went down to the Chinese pawnbroker's to see if they were there. Before going, as is his custom, he took the watches, some twenty-one in number, and put them into a box, previous to putting them into the safe for the night. Locking the door and leaving the light burning, he started down street, and upon coming back, twenty minutes afterward, found the door open, the light out, and the watches and other jewelry gone. Half an hour later one of the watches—which Mr. Royal identified—was pawned at the Chinese pawnbroker's. The police were at once notified of the loss, and Chief Lappeus, of Portland, was telegraphed in relation thereto. It is thought that the thief is in hiding in some one of the Chinese dens or joints of the town, but the police have a clue to his whereabouts that they think will result in his capture. It was a bold piece of work, and should have the effect of making all exceedingly careful. The town receives an accession of two hundred and more by every steamer, among whom are a lot of yellow devils who have no scruples in stealing, upon any and every occasion.

State Democratic Platform.

At the State Democratic Convention held in Portland on April 25th, 1882, the following platform was adopted:

The democratic party of the state of Oregon in convention assembled, cognizant of the important consequences depending upon its deliberations, and affirming the principles laid down by the founders of this government, do declare as follows:

1. That we favor honesty, efficiency, and economy in every department of the government, both state and federal.

2. That we favor the equal protection of the rights of labor and capital under just laws.

3. That while we recognize and respect the legal rights of railroad enterprises, we demand that our legislatures, state and federal, enact such laws regulating the same as may be necessary to prevent unjust discrimination and oppression of the people.

4. That we denounce the present tariff system as a class legislation favorable to the few and oppressive to the many; and therefore demand an immediate revision thereof, a reduction of all import duties to a strict revenue standard; and that the free list be so enlarged as to include all articles of domestic products, agricultural and domestic use among the people, as far as the needed revenues of the government will permit.

5. That the president's veto of the Chinese immigration bill is a public misfortune. It sets the degrading mark of competition with the coolies of China upon the labor of the workmen of America, and it treats with contemptuous disregard the unanimous protests and appeals of the entire Pacific coast. In behalf of the people of Oregon we disapprove and condemn it, and declare it to be the duty of every citizen, regardless of party, to express his dissent from his vote as well as with his voice.

6. That the assassination of President Garfield was a national calamity to be regretted by every law-abiding citizen; and that said assassin was the result of the pernicious practice of the republican party in applying the spoils system to every branch of the civil service of our government.

7. We believe that polygamy is a crime punishable by law, and that its existence should be made odious and impossible.

8. That we are in favor of a repeal of the navigation laws, and the removal of the duties on all materials that enter into the construction of vessels, so that American produce can be carried in American bottoms, and the American people be able to enter into competition for the carrying trade of the world.

9. That we regard the improvement of the Columbia river and its tributaries, the Yaguna and Coos bays, the harbor of refuge at Port Orford, the Coquille river, the construction of the locks at the Cascades, and the Dories of the Columbia river, and the improvement of other harbors and rivers of our state as essential to the prosperity of its people, and we demand of our senators and representatives in congress their best endeavor to secure liberal appropriations for the improvement thereof, and the general government, the end that the whole of Oregon may share in the certain benefits ensuing from competition in transportation.

10. That we favor the maintenance of the public schools, the hope and pride of a free state, and we demand such ways and means as will contribute to the increase of funds for that purpose.

11. That we favor the taxation of all mortgages in the county where the same are recorded.

12. We assert that it is the duty of the legislature to enact such laws as will make the compensation of clerk and sheriff of every county in this state commensurate with the services performed.

13. We denounce any organization or legislation that would proscribe any citizen on account of religion or nationality.

American Newspapers in 1882.

The American Newspaper Directory, which will be issued next month by Geo. P. Rowell & Co., of New York, will contain the names of 10,611 periodicals in the United States and territories, which is a gain of 344 in the year just passed. The number of daily newspapers has increased in a somewhat larger proportion, and is now represented by a total of 996 against 921 in 1881. The largest increase has been in New York—10 dailies, 29 of all sorts. Illinois and Missouri show a percentage of gain which is even greater, while Colorado leads all others in the percentage of increase, both of daily and weekly issues. California, Nebraska, Nevada, Oregon, South Carolina, Tennessee, and West Virginia have fallen behind 1881 in the total number of periodicals issued. In Georgia, Maine and Massachusetts the suspensions have exactly counterbalanced the new ventures. In every state not mentioned above, and in the territories, there has been an increase.
